North to Alaska, they're goin' North, the rush is on. Big Sam left Seattle in the year of ninety-two, with George Pratt, his partner, and brother, Billy, too. They crossed the Yukon River and found the bonanza gold. Beneath that old white mountain just a little south-east of Nome.

Sam crossed the majestic mountains to the valleys far below.
He talked to his team of huskies as he mushed them through the snow. With the northern lights runnin’ wild in the land of the midnight sun, Yes, Sam McCord was a mighty man in the year of nineteen-one.

Chorus: Where the river is winding, big nuggets they're find-ing.
North to Alaska, they're goin' north, the rush is on. North to Alaska, go north, the rush is on

George turned to Sam with his gold in his hand, Said: Sam you're lookin' at a lonely, lonely man. I'd trade all the gold buried in this land, for one small band of gold to place on sweet little Jen-ny’s hand.

A / E A

‘Cause a man needs a woman to love him all the time. You know
D / / A / D /
Sam, a true love is hard to find. I'd build for my Jen-ny a
