Make The World Go Away
Eddy Arnold – 1965

4/4  G

G                                                D7          /
Do you remember when you loved me, before the world took me
G     /                              C         D7                                        G a-stray, if you do then for-give me and make the world go a-way.

G                                  C     D7                             G
Chorus: Make the world go a-way and get it off my shoulders
G                                  C   D7                                        G
Say the things you used to say and make the world go a-way

G                     D7        /                                   G   /
I'm sorry if I hurt you, I'll make it up day by day. Just say you
C       D7                                        G love me like you used to and make the world go a-way.

G                                  C     D7                            G
Chorus: Make the world go a-way and get it off my shoulders
G                                  C   D7                                        G
Say the things you used to say and make the world go a-way
D7                                          G - C - (Cm)   G(3) and make the world go a-way.
